

Lord,

who wished to stay present among us through Your Holy Eucharist, the mystery of your love, we unite ourselves to all those who come to adore You in spirit and in truth.

Praying day and night, we would like to offer our presence to Your Presence. Allow us to listen to You in silence, as You wish to reveal Yourself to us in the secret of our hearts. Help us to abandon ourselves to You: may the praise and supplication, and the confident gift of our lives raise up from our hearts.

May Your Sacred Heart, source of all mercy, establish our hearts in peace and inner joy. May it strengthen our faith, renew our love, and sustain our hope. Amen.

Anyone can come to take part in this mission of adoration.

Come...

The Lord awaits you!

THE SACRED HEART BASILICA IN MONTMARTRE

Built between 1875 and 1914 on the "hill of martyrs" (Montmartre) which was the place where Saint Denis, the first bishop of Paris, was decapitated for his faith, the Basilica was consecrated in 1919.

Consecrated to the Heart of Christ, revelation of the love of God for mankind, the Sacred Heart Basilica in Montmartre is a unique place in the world of perpetual Eucharistic adoration, night and day, for more than 125 years. (1st of August 1885)

This makes the Basilica shine out as a sign of hope. When a visitor sees the dome of the Basilica, he says to himself: "Up there, the Lord is present. Up there, somebody is praying for me."

Milestones in the life of the Basilica

- 6th of June 1875: Foundation stone laid.
1st of August 1885: Definitive establishment of perpetual adoration, night and day.
20th of November 1895: A 19 ton bell, cast in 1891 at Annecy, and offered to the Basilica by the Savoy region: the "Savoy Bell" was to take its ultimate place in the bell tower on the 13th of March 1907.
16th of October 1919: Definitive consecration of the Basilique du Sacré-Coeur de Montmartre by Cardinal Amette and presided by Cardinal Vico, papal legate for Pope Benedict XV.
4th of June 2010 - 1st of July 2011: Jubilee for 125 years of continuous Eucharistic adoration.
